

JUST DO IT(PLACE IN YOUR NOTES)

WHII 8b The Expansion of Political Rights in Europe

The rise of _____ was a powerful force behind European politics during the 19th Century. Widespread demands for political _____ led to revolutions and legislative actions in _____.

National pride, economic _____, democratic _____, and the influence of _____ such as Goethe, stimulated the growth of nationalism. The terms of the Congress of _____ led to widespread discontent in Europe, especially in _____ and the _____ states. The agreements conflicted with the rising desire for _____. Different ethnic groups were spread throughout several _____ (Slavic people could be found in Germany, Austria, Russia and Italy). The agreements did not appeal to supporters of _____, such as the middle class, college students and factory workers. Unsuccessful revolutions of 1848 increased nationalistic _____.

In contrast to continental Europe, _____ expanded political rights through legislative means and made _____ illegal in the British Empire. Britain also expanded its _____ through the Reform Bill of 1832.

Word Bank:

competition	Europe	German	Great Britain	ideals	Italy
nationalism	rights	slavery	tendencies	Vienna	writers
democracy	countries	liberalism	electorate

JUST DO IT #2 10/16/12

Answer the following questions using your 8b notes.

- 1. What was a powerful force behind European politics in the 19th Century?
- 2. In your words, define this powerful force?
- 3. What 3 factors influenced the growth of nationalism in Europe?
- 4. What meeting in Europe led to major problems in Europe?
- 5. Who led this meeting? What happened at this meeting?
- 6. What occurred throughout Europe in 1848?
- 7. Do you think the people that led these events were liberals or conservatives? How can you tell?
- 8. What did Great Britain do that made them different from the rest of Europe?
- 9. What type of government did Great Britain already have that most big nations in Europe did not have?
- 10. What revolution allowed them to achieve this?